First Convo Is Grizzly Rally, Religion Featured on Monday

Two all-school convocations have been scheduled—one for tomorrow morning and one for Monday morning—since the first meeting of the convocation committee early this week.

The Friday get-together, sponsored by the Traditions board, will be a kick-off rally for the Bobcat-Grizzly football game.

Monday's convocation will mark the opening of Religious Emphasis week, with a talk by Monsignor B. Harrington, Diocesan director of Catholic Charities, Inc., at Helena.

Gaughan Proposes Grad I-D Cards At B-F Meeting

A proposal for graduate student identification cards was advanced yesterday by Larry Gaughan, Missoula, senior Central board delegate, at a meeting of Budget and Finance committee.

Gaughan's plan calls for issuance of identification cards at a nominal fee to graduate students. The card would entitle them to receive student rates at functions not subsidized by the present student activity fee.

He also proposed that graduate students receive the same admission prices to athletic events as are now charged faculty members, or at least a special student rate, since they are classed as students at the University.

It was pointed out that graduate students at present do not have to purchase the regular student activity card. Those who don't buy a card have to pay adult prices for all student functions, and are not included in special rates offered students for other events where the activity card is required for identification, such as tickets to the Community Concert series or Fox theater cards. Yet these activities are not given funds from student activity fees, so the activity card merely serves as a means of identifying a student as a 'student'. Gaughan contends that graduate students have the right to be recognized as students, but lack identification.

DR. SORENSON RETURNS FROM LANGUAGE CONFAB

Dr. Thora Sorenson, associate professor of Spanish, returned Monday from Portland where she took part in planning for the spring convention of the Pacific Northwest district of Modern Language Association.

Among the questions to be presented to the convention next spring is the program of teaching languages in the elementary schools. Seattle, at present, is a good example of this relatively new idea with its teaching of French and Spanish to younger children.

Bobcat-Grizzly Game, Dads' Day To Highlight Week-End Action

Flashcard Section Featured in Game, Students Needed

Students attending the Bobcat-Grizzly game Saturday are needed to fill out the flash-card section, according to Marcia Smith, Missoula, chairman of the card committee of Grizzly Growlers. Seats for the special section include 250 on or near the 50-yard line in the east bleachers.

"Work on the cards is completed," Miss Smith reported "and all we need is people." She emphasized that no practice is needed for participation in the planned stunts and students from all classes are welcome in the section. Instructions are printed on sheets with the cards, and will also be given verbally from below the stands.

Traditions board chairman, Johan Miller, Fairview, reported many Bozeman fans, including parents and students, will be in the west bleachers.

"A good show put on by MSU spectators will add to the program and compliment the school," Patsy Anderson, Bozeman, Traditions board member, stated.

The 250 seats should be filled by 12:30 p.m. Saturday. Participants are requested by the card committee to wear white blouses or shirts.

Corbin hall has challenged North hall in a campaign to see which of the two can get the most girls to sign the lists as a volunteer in the card section. Lists are located in both dorms.

French Film 'Gigi' Scheduled Friday

"Gigi," a French film production, will be shown in the Student Union theater at 7:30 p.m. Friday. A short subject, "White Flood" is also billed.

The French film will be shown again at 9:30 p.m. in the Union for the benefit of students who wish to hear poet W. H. Auden in the Music auditorium at 8 p.m.

The first convocation of the year will start the Dads' day week end off with a bang on Friday morning at 9:40 in the Student Union auditorium.

Dads will be entertained on Saturday with a luncheon and mixer-coffee hour at which the Jubileers will entertain and Arnie Carruthers' combo will furnish dance music.

"Beat the Bobcats" is the theme for the convo being sponsored by Traditions board. Classes will be shortened so all students can attend.

Saturday's festivities will start at 11:15 with a luncheon in the Governor's room of the Florence hotel for students and their parents. All students are urged to register their parents for the luncheon. Deadline for signing up for the luncheon is noon Friday. Registration is being handled by the Student Union business office. Price of the luncheon is $1.50 per plate.

Dads Registration Set
 Registration tables will be set up at the luncheon and at the entrance of the football stadium.

Hinze Welcomes Visitors, Veterans To Opening Show

Director LeRoy W. Hinze welcomed first nighters to the opening performance of "The Lady's not for Burning" and invited the audience to a reception after the show, to honor all who have ever taken part in a Masquers production and to celebrate the golden anniversary of MSU drama.

The party was held in a room adjoining the theater; a large square gold cake and silver tea service decorated the refreshment table.

A costume display was featured, and a long red fur-trimmed cloak from "Richelieu," the first show produced on campus, was shown. Numerous museum costume pieces, including two sets of armor, were exhibited.

Also on display was a collection of pictures and programs from Masquers shows through the years.

Mrs. R. H. Walterskirchen arranged the reception, and was assisted by Mrs. Carl McFarland and Mrs. Luther B. Richman.

trance of the football stadium.

Highlight of Dads' day will be the Grizzly-Bobcat football game at 1:30 p.m. At halftime, awards will be presented by Traditions board to the oldest dad and to the dad traveling the farthest to the game. Only dads who are registered will be eligible for the awards. Dads of team members will be allowed to sit on the players' bench during the game.

Following the game, there will be a coffee hour in the Student Union Gold room. A traveling trophy will be awarded to the winning team at that time. The MSU Jubileers will present a musical program during the get-together and Arnie Carruthers' combo will furnish music for dancing. In the evening there will be an ASMSU mixer in the Student Union Gold room. Dancing will be from 9 to 12.

First Foreign-Born Pulitzer Winner Will Give Reading

W. H. Auden, the first foreign poet to win the Pulitzer prize, will give a reading in the Music school auditorium at 8 o'clock Friday evening.

Dr. Leslie A. Fiedler, chairman of the English department, said the talk is open to the public without charge. Auden's reading will be given under the auspices of the University Liberal Arts club.

Born in England in 1907, Auden was educated at Oxford and grew up in the post-World War I depression in England. With Stephen Spender and others he began to write of the breakdown of the society in which he was born.

As the leader of this group of young poets, he gave a new direction to the poetry of the thirties, said Dr. Fiedler.

In 1939 Auden came to America and has become an American citizen. His books include: "The Dog Beneath the Skin," "Journey to War," "The Age of Anxiety," "Letters from Iceland," "The Ascent of the F-6," and "Collected Poems." "The Age of Anxiety" won the Pulitzer prize.

Recently Auden has become interested in opera, Dr. Fiedler said. Two years ago he wrote the libretto for Stravinsky's "Rake's Progress," which has been produced by opera associations in Europe and America.

Other prizes awarded Auden include King George's gold medal and the Award of Merit from the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

Showing of Campus Play Will Run Thru Saturday

"The Lady's not for Burning," by Christopher Fry, is the opening all-campus show of the year, and will be given tonight through Saturday at Simpkins Little Theatre.

Directing the fantasy is LeRoy W. Hinze, and starring are Bill Nye and Marjorie Lovberg, Missoula.

Student admission is 25 cents plus a student activity card, and the box office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. All seats are reserved.

Annual R-E Week Opens Sunday

Nine men, representing nine religious denominations, will speak in classrooms, before clubs, and hold general discussions at dinner dates in the various living groups during Religious Emphasis week, Sunday through Thursday.

They will have a total of 58 classroom appointments, and will conduct six seminars on religious problems troublesome to the student in college.

The seminars will be in LA 104, and will take place either at 4 p.m. or 8 p.m.

Many Subjects Included

These are the seminars and the speakers who will take part in them: "Christianity versus Communism" (Monday afternoon)—Dr. William Bernhardt, Rev. Robert Bertram, and Rev. Walter Schnackenberg; "Is Materialism Adequate?" (Tuesday afternoon)—Rev. Alden Anderson, Father James Gannon, and Dr. Robert Newton; "Sceptic's Hour—Is There Anything to Religion?" (Tuesday evening)—Dr. Bernhardt, Msgr. D. B. Harrington, and Rabbi Albert Plotkin; "Preparation for Family Life" (Wednesday afternoon)—Rev. Anderson, Rev. Stuart Hackett, and Rev. Schnackenberg; "Mixed Marriages and Birth Control" (Wednesday evening)—Rev. Bertram, Father Gannon, and Rabbi Plotkin; and "Evolution and the Christian Faith" (Thursday afternoon)—Dr. Newton, Rev. Hackett, and Msgr. Harrington.

Pageant Tops Week

The week of religious activity will be capped with performances of the pageant-drama, "As Long As the Sun Shines," Nov. 18-20.

Organ music will accompany actors portraying the story which audiences will see when the pageant-drama brings to life the history of religion in Western Montana.

Through the three episodes, except for portions in which individual church choirs and the combined choir will take part, organist Don Stagg, Butte, using the field house pipe organ, will have the difficult job of creating appropriate music, Bert Hansen, pageant director, said Tuesday.

Jewish and Methodist . . .

Rabbi Albert Plotkin (left), and Dr. William H. Bernhardt (right), representing the Jewish and Methodist faiths respectively, will be among the speakers at MSU during Religious Emphasis week, next week. Rabbi Plotkin is presently the Rabbi of Temple Emanu-El, Spokane, Wash., and specializes in the singing and interpretation of Jewish liturgical music and folk songs. Rev. Bernhardt is an instructor at Central College, Mo. His fields of study and interest are philosophy of religion and ethics.

Star Chamber Not Needed At Present, Says Chaney

Don Chaney, ASMSU president, yesterday answered the Kaimin "Star Chamber" editorial, saying, "I don't think there is any need for such meetings right now within the student organization."

The editorial, published Wednesday, charged that Central board has taken steps toward holding executive sessions behind closed doors.

An earlier edition touched off the spat with a story about Field House finances. The article, which appeared in Friday's edition, drew heated criticism from Central board officers.

They said the story was incomplete, and that the Kaimin reporter had been asked not to write about the Field house program until the report was finished. The statement figures were not even recorded in the minutes.

Regarding the financial statement, Chaney said that Central board had asked an executive group to gather information.

He added, "We wanted the students to see what was being done with the Field house program and the financial standing because student backing is pledged in the program."

"But we did not feel that a drab financial statement would offer the information because of the complexity, and because many 'things' are left out of such statements."

STUDENTS CAN'T BE BLAMED FOR POOR SPIRIT—MERRICK

In your editorial of the Nov. 3 Kaimin entitled "A mistake to be corrected" you stated that the lack of spirit was a major problem at MSU. It probably is.

You went further, however, to say very pessimistically that even "our country cousins from MSC" . . . "probably will drown out Grizzly rooters this year." That statement will not contribute to any increase in whatever spirit is already present.

Going further, you said, in effect, that MSC's seven-game winning streak (now eight) is incentive for them to have more rah-rah than we. If we had a seven-game winning streak, or even a three game winning streak, the attitude that prevails would more than likely change.

Is not school spirit a measure of favorable feeling toward the varsity teams as well as the rest of the institution? That puts it in rather cold terms, but we only have one varsity team in active competition with other schools at the present. Granted, that they (the varsity team) have the spirit we lack, but there is no tonic as good as a few wins. You can hardly blame the student body.

PLAYER ESCAPES REVIEW.

Due to an oversight, mention of Alice Ann Larom's performance in "The Lady's Not for Burning" was omitted from the review in this paper yesterday. Here is the paragraph.

"Alice Ann Larom, as Alizon the innocent, was completely sweet, naive, and lovely, and very much in character. Her voice was particularly pleasant, for while she never spoke loudly, every word was easily understood, and her soothing manner was indeed refreshing amid the generally prevailing noise."

C-B MEMBER'S ATTITUDE QUESTIONED BY THOMPSON

I read Kim Forman's editorial yesterday and wondered what effect it would have on his political future. I understand that he received a "friendly" warning from a member of Central board (who shall remain unnamed here) after the Kaimin printed his story on Field House finances last Friday.

The general theme of the warning was to the effect that Kim should do some political fence-mending since his chances of moving from associate editor to editor of the Kaimin diminished considerably with publication of the story.

It seems that Central board, or some of the members, thought the Kaimin would not be able to explain the "intricate" financial report to the students. A brief report was written anyway—hence the warning.

Although this was a friendly warning, as I have said, it appears to be indicative of an unhealthy attitude in the Central board—at least, one CB member thought Kim should be warned. It reminds me of the "you be good and we'll take care of you" kind of politics.

It would be a shameful situation if the governing body of ASMSU degenerated so much that it had to have a yes-man in the Kaimin editor's job who would suppress unfavorable publicity.

JOHN SCHWARZ ASKS ABOUT THE INSCRUTABLE TOOMEY

I believe it was the name which made me feel there was something odd about yesterday's Regis Toomey letter. Then, when the Missoula County airport reported they did not employ anyone by that name, I began to suspect that (of course I was wrong) even Uncle Ben Frost did not exist.

This man Toomey seems (he is so unbelievably sentimental) almost a mockery; as though he actually intends mockery. And now that he obviously does not even intend to reveal his place of employment, he becomes, somehow, mysterious. One imagines him peeping at traditions board meetings; or lurking down back alleys, with spurs tinkling, and bogus bear paws sewn on his body.

Saturday's MSU-MSC Battle Looms As Thriller of Rivalry

By BILL LARCOMBE

The Montana State University Grizzlies and the Montana State College Bobcats have been meeting on the gridiron since 1897, but Saturday's battle on Dornblaser field promises to be one of the most exciting contests ever played in the traditional rivalry.

The Bobcats, undefeated in eight games, and sporting their most successful season in the school's history, are gunning for their first Grizzly pelt since 1947. That game saw Buck Pruening, Silvertip lineman, miss two conversions to give the State college a 13-12 victory. Ironically, Pruening's conversion record for the season was 29 completions in 1 attempts.

Grizzlies Triumph First

Inaugurating competition between the two schools, the Grizzlies won the 1897 game 18-6 and the '98 game 6-0. The Bobcats began a six-game winning streak in 1899 by defeating Montana twice, 38-0 and 5-0.

The Grizzlies, led by halfbacks Garlington and Fred Murphy, ended the Bobcat reign with a resounding 79-0 triumph on Thanksgiving day in 1904, before the largest crowd to witness a Montana football game during that era.

The Grizzlies and the Bobcats met twice during the 1909 season with the Silvertips winning both games. Halfback Winstanley proved the Bobcats' undoing in the first contest when he booted field goal for a 3-0 victory. The return match was played in Missoula on Thanksgiving day and the Grizzlies posted a 15-0 win. Al Ittner scored two touchdowns and A. F. Bishop kicked a field goal.

Owsley's TD Wins

Montana opened the 1912 season with a 7-0 triumph over the Bobcats in Bozeman, with Merritt Owsley scoring the touchdown and Craighead converting. This was the first year a touchdown counted six points.

In a return contest that same year, the Grizzlies, sparked by Burton Snead, spanked the 'Cats 33-3 in a game completed without a penalty called on either team. Montana's 1920 Homecoming game saw the Grizzlies, coached by Bernie Bierman, hand the Bobcats a 28-0 licking. Joe Kreshner, Steve Sullivan, and Harry Adams proved too strong for the State college as they racked up 18 first downs to one during the first half.

Bobcats Gain Revenge

In 1929, after 20 years of frustration, State college gained revenge by dumping the Grizzlies 12-0, as the final gun cut short a Grizzly drive with a first and goal on the Bobcat five-yard line.

Again in 1932, an inspired Bobcat team upset the favored Silvertips, this time by a 19-7 score after the Grizzlies had tied the game in the second quarter. The following year, the Bobcats repeated with a 19-7 win.

The Grizzlies' revenge was sweet though, as they ran up a string of 10 straight victories through 1946. No MSU-MSC games were played from '41 through '45. Since the Bobcat victory in 1947, the Grizzlies have dominated the rivalry with a six-game winning streak.

MSU Sets Records

In the 1952 contest played in Missoula, the Silvertips set two collegiate football records as they defeated the Bobcats 35-12. They ran 96 plays on the ground and had possession of the ball 112 times throughout the contest.

From 1926 to 1951 the series was played in Butte's Naranche stadium, but is now played on a home-and-home basis.

Judging from the records, Saturday's "big game" will be full of thrills as the Bobcats shoot for their first undefeated season in the school's history. And as for the Grizzlies—any year is a great one if they stop the Bobcats.

What cigarette do college students go for? According to the latest, biggest coast-to-coast survey, students prefer Luckies to all other brands. And once again, the No. 1 reason is better taste. Of course Luckies taste better. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. Try a pack. Research Reveals City of Missoula Resting on Former Lake-Bottom

The Montana State University campus was once smack in the middle (bottom side) of a 1,000 foot deep lake. The 1942 Bulletin of the National Geological society of America says so.

Lake Missoula, as it was called, was impounded by mountain walls and lobes of the Cordilleran glacier, and contained 500 cubic miles of water. The lake inundated almost 3,000 square miles—twice the area of the Great Salt Lake.

The top level of the glacial lake is evidenced by relatively clear "terrace" marks on Mount Sentinel and, even more pronounced, on Mount Jumbo. These terrace marks, caused by wave erosion at different levels as the lake dropped, appear to be a series of horizontal trails, the highest of which is 4,200 feet above sea level.

The shoreline marks are more apparent after a light snow.

Geologists think huge ice dams plugged mountain passes such as Eddy Narrows and the Clark River drains, thus forming the lake.

Glacial Lake Missoula was drained twice, the first time in 52 hours when the ice dam at Eddy Narrows suddenly collapsed.

It is estimated that the water spurted out at 9.5 cubic miles an hour. Comparatively, the Mississippi river discharge during the great flood of 1937 reached a speed of only .05 cubic miles an hour.

After the lake drained, other lobes of the glacier formed new dams and the lake filled again. This time the drainage was much slower, and pounding waves ate out the "terraces" along the shoreline.

MSU Physicists Installing $50,000 Research Machine

Dr. C. R. Jeppeson, chairman of the physics department, has announced that a $50,000 linear electron accelerator has been loaned to the University by the Atomic Energy commission for an indefinite period.

The accelerator, a member of the growing family of nuclear research machines, is to be installed in the east wing basement of the math-physics building at an estimated cost to the University of $5,000.

The linear accelerator uses the traveling wave principle to accelerate electrons to a maximum energy of seven million electron volts.

Because the stream of electrons produces intensely penetrating rays, shielding of about 10 tons of concrete and two tons of lead must be constructed around the main tube.

In the traveling wave, electrons are evaporated from a heated filament and injected with a pulse of high frequency power into one end of a 38-inch tube. The electrons are accelerated as they ride along the crest of the wave of this high frequency signal.

Accelerated electrons shoot out of the tube in a one-quarter inch beam, ready for use. This cycle of injection and acceleration is repeated in bursts that last about 12 millionths of a second.

Dr. Jeppeson said the machine will be an asset to the University because it will provide an incentive for students to keep in touch with the field of present day physics.

The accelerator will be available to graduate students for research problems.

Other work outside the field of physics that can be done include: food sterilization by high energy Z-rays, mineral analysis, effect of X-rays on cancer, and the effect of radiation on chemical reaction rates.

The accelerator, built at the University of California with AEC funds, will probably be installed by January 15.

Weekend Goes to Dads, Moonlight, French

By BARBARA MELLOTT and JEAN HERBERT

Dads' Day, Bobcat-Grizzly game, Sigma Chi French party, Alpha Phi and Theta functions and Phi Sigma Kappa Moonlight ball make up a busy social week end. A mixer in the Gold room Saturday night is open to dads, mothers, and students of MSU and MSC.

Alpha Phi

Mrs. Jack Thomas, Great Falls, visited the house Friday.

Mary Doherty, Missoula, moved into the house last week end.

The pledges took a successful sneak Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Schmidt and sons were Sunday dinner guests. The fall Mardi Gras function will be held in the house Friday.

Alpha Tau Omega

The fall dinner-dance will be Nov. 19, in the Governor's room of the Florence hotel.

Phi Sigma Kappa

Crowning of the Moonlight Girl will be the feature of the dance Saturday in the Emperor's room of the Palace hotel. Faculty guests will be President and Mrs. Carl McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. DeJarnett, and Mr. and Mrs. Gareth Moon, Missoula.

Theta Chi

An exchange dinner was held with the Tri-Delts last night.

Darwin Pfaffinger, Hampshire, Ill., moved into the house this week.

New pledge class officers include Nevil France, Randolph, N. Y., president; Tom Unger, Fergus Falls, Minn., vice-president; Ken Wickham, Hamilton, secretary, and Ted Edison, Missoula, treasurer.

Sigma Kappa

JoAnne Sletten, Hungry Horse, pledged Sigma Kappa Monday night.

Founders' Day was observed Tuesday. The alumnae were entertained at dessert after the program.

The alumnae club met Tuesday at the house.

Delta Gamma

Lindalee Elphison, Butte, was formally initiated Monday night.

Judy Harden, Billings, has received a diamond from William Richards, Great Falls.

Marty Lowe, Missoula, is living in the house this month.

The annual faculty dinner was held last night.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Queen of Hearts candidates will be entertained Saturday night at a fireside and Sunday at dinner. A dinner was held for the ten women last night.

*Chuck Kester, Valier, pinned Martha York, Missoula.

The house serenaded Joy Bradshaw, Kellogg, Idaho, at North hall Monday night. Miss Bradshaw is pinned to Jim Biotti, Kellogg.

James Farrell, Oak Park, Ill., returned to school after 10 days in the hospital following a car accident.

Kappa Alpha Theta

A "crazy hat and red sock stomp" will be held at the Theta house Friday night. Dancing, games and refreshments will be included.

Pledge officers are Sherry Fay, Shelby, social chairman, and Charlotte Frazer, Simms, junior Panhellenic delegate.

North Hall

A party Tuesday honored girls who had birthdays in September, October and November.

North and Jumbo halls held an exchange dinner Sunday.

South Hall

Sunday dinner guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Deane Ferm, Asst. Prof. and Mrs. Robert L. James, Assoc. Prof. and Mrs. Theodore Shoemaker, and Norman Nelson.

Newly elected South hall officers are Harold Poppe, Butte, president; Ed Johnson, Anaconda, vice-president; Ron Saylor, Great Falls, secretary-treasurer; Harry Hoffman, Ft. Atkinson, Wis., social chairman, and Bill Sanders, Butte, athletics.

Delta Delta Delta

Mrs. James Bowly, district governor, is a house guest this week.

An exchange dinner was held with the Theta Chi's Wednesday night.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Virginia Wyman, Billings, is pinned to Bob McLaughlin, Billings. McLaughlin is a Lambda Chi Alpha at Montana State college.

The Sigma Chi's were the guests of the Kappas for a late twirp week coke date Monday night.

Beverly Berg, Helena, was a house guest last week end.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Serenades were given Monday night for Connie Jensen, Hamilton, who is pinned to Monte Brammer, New Castle, Ind., and for Marlys Haney, Butte, Kappa Alpha Theta, who is engaged to Don Erickson, Havre.

New pledges are Kerry Burns, Red Lodge, John Powell, Alberta, Canada, and Duane Ellwood, Missoula. Formal pledging was held Wednesday night.

Sigma Chi

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Jacoby, Missoula, were Sunday dinner guests.

New pledges are Don Oliver and Oliver Leuthold, Billings, and Victor Dany, Van Nuys, Calif.

Phi Delta Theta

Theta pledges exchanged house duties with Phi Delt pledges Saturday morning.

The Thetas came over Saturday to listen to the Grizzly-Lobo game.

Marvin Perry, National assistant secretary, was a house guest this week.

Dinner guests this week were

Vern Vlasak, Kalispell, and Leo Slem, Havre.

Sigma Nu

New pledges are Howard Mahan, Opportunity, Wash., and Dick Curdy, Whitehall.

The house will have a Dads' Day tea following the game Saturday. Thirty Sigma Nu's from MSC will be guests of the house during the week end.

Jim Laux, Milwaukee, Wis., has pinned Darlene Dressel, Missoula.

VETS TO GET CREDITS

Veterans can get credit for time spent in service and for service schools attended by applying to Mrs. Emma Lommason, assistant registrar.

There is no time limit upon application and unless graduation is planned in the near future there is no need to hurry.

Parents' Day Becomes Dads' Day When Ma Decides to Stay Home

By MARY LU ZIMMERMAN

Some time between Oct. 10, 1940, and fall, 1941, the big "break" came. Pots of international trouble were bubbling over in Europe and the far East and Ma got disgusted and decided to stay home and let Pa go to the University game by himself.

The day was formerly known as Parents' day. Fall of 1940 was the first time a Parents' day football game had been played since 1934, at least a 1940 Kaimin story said the game was the first Parents' day football game since Bunny Oakes' regime, and Bunny Oakes was MSU coach from 1931 through 1934.

An October 10, 1940 headline read, "Parents' Day Clash Will Be a Colorful One."

I don't know how colorful the parents' clash was or whether it was on Parents' day, but I do know we lost the football game and the next year the relations' day game was changed to Dads' day.

Then the Dads and students went to war and it wasn't until 1949, when the Grizzlies played Brigham Young, that Dads' day occurred again.

In 1950 Dads watched Washington State knock us over, in 1951 they saw Wyoming win, and in 1953 they saw Idaho whip us. But there's hope this year since we're playing the Bobcats and we trampled them in 1952 at the Dads' day game.

Maybe one of the Dads who comes will be the student who unofficially promoted the idea of dragging cats in the traditional pre-Bobcat-Grizzly game parade in 1933. If he revives some of his schemes when he returns to the campus, perhaps it is best that Mother stays home.

Instructors Attend Education Confabs

John F. Staehle, and Vernon O. Sletten, assistant professors in education, were in Spokane Monday and Tuesday attending the Northwest Regional Drive-in Conference on Educational Leadership. The meeting was for the administrators of community schools in the Northwest.

James E. Short, associate education professor, Henry W. Knapp, assistant professor in education, and Kenneth Card, graduate assistant, were in Bozeman Monday for the Montana meeting of the association for Supervision and Curriculum development. Dr. Walter Anderson, from New York University, was the main speaker. Dr. Anderson was dean of the School of Education at MSU from 1941-1945.

Lory to Address Great Falls Dinner

Dr. Earl C. Lory, professor of chemistry and faculty athletic adviser, will give the principal address at the annual Great Falls Quarterback's club dinner in honor of the Great Falls football team Nov. 16.

Dr. Lory will speak on the subject "College Football — Yes or No?"

Two Scholarships Offered College Seniors In Law

Twenty scholarships, two in this district, of $6,600 each are being offered to outstanding college seniors by the New York University School of Law. These scholarships, known as Root-Tilden scholarships, are awarded on the basis of superior academic record, potential capacity for unselfish public leadership, and active participation in extracurricular college activities.

They are awarded annually on a competitive basis, with two scholarships allocated to each of the ten federal judicial circuits. A scholarship is awarded initially for one year, but is renewed for the second and third years if the student maintains a high standard in legal and general scholarship. It carries an annual stipend of $2,200.

A candidate must be a male, single, at least 20 years of age but not more than 28 when his law training begins, and a citizen of the United States.

Interested college seniors are asked to apply immediately to the Dean of the School of Law, New York University Law Center, New York 3, New York. Applications for 1955 must be completed by February 15.

Imer, Grizzlies to Tangle With Wylie, Bobcats Here In 53rd Meeting of Rivals

By J. D. COLEMAN

Saturday afternoon, a Dads' day crowd will see the greatest Montana State college football team ever to perform on Dornblaser field when the undefeated Bobcats meet the oft-wounded, but still vicious, Grizzly gridders.

This game, the 53rd of an ancient series dating back to 1897, promises to be a battle between the two high-powered offenses. The Bobcats have amassed 2264 yards in total offense in eight games, for a 283 game average. Montana has 2002 yards in seven games, for a 286 yard-a-game average against much tougher competition.

DICK IMER, MSU

The traditional game also shapes up as a battle between two halfbacks—the Bobcats' Harvey Wylie and the Grizzlies' Dick Imer. Imer is currently sixth in the nation at rushing with 704 yards in 77 carries for a 9.1 yard-per-carry average. Imer needs to gain only 177 more yards to break the Skyline's rushing record set by George Bean, Utah, in 1950. Wylie, known in Bobcat land as the Calgary Comet, has gained 576 yards in eight games for a 6.4 yards-per-tote average. He also is one of the leading small college scorers with 91 points.

The Bobcats have a big, tough line that has held opponents to just three yards a play. They allowed North Dakota just 45 yards on the ground but were not too successful in coping with the Sioux passing attack, which clicked for 206 yards and two TDs.

The Bobcats operate from a spread-T and also use an occasional optional play from the split-

HARVEY WYLIE, MSC

T. Quarterback Weller does most of the passing, although either halfback will chuck the ball occasionally.

The Grizzly offense will operate at full strength with Dick Heath and Bill Gue in the lineup. Heath, who has been plagued by hard luck so far this season, is more than due for a good day on the air lanes, particularly in view of the Bobcats' inept pass defense. Gue, whose speed makes Montana's trap and center-smash plays go for extra yardage, and Murdo Campbell, with 426 yards gained in 65 carries, will round out the Grizzly backfield.

Cub, Varsity Hoopsters To Scrimmage Friday

Basketball fans will get their first look at the 1954-55 edition of the Grizzly team during a Grizzly-Cub scrimmage in the Men's gym Friday at 4 p.m.

Coach George "Jiggs" Dahlberg plans to start the following team for the varsity: guards Ed Argenbright and Rudolph "Zip" Rhoades, center Ray Howard, and forwards Ed Fine and Dave Adams.

The probable Cub lineup, according to Dahlberg, will include Wayne Davies and Paul Sullivan at the guards, Russ Sheriff at center, and Jerry Hathaway and Don Langhi at the forward positions.

Center BOB SMALL, 200-pound Missoula sophomore, made 12 tackles against New Mexico last Saturday. He will alternate with senior Marlyn Jensen as anchor man in the Grizzly line when the Silver-tips meet the Bobcats Saturday.

Jumbolaya Takes League B Crown With Win over SX

By JOE CROSS

Undefeated Jumbolaya clinched first place in the "B" division of the intramural football league and Sigma Nu knotted the top spot in the "A" division in Wednesday afternoon action.

In the "A" division, Sigma Nu dumped previously undefeated Forestry 18-0. Each team's final season record stands at six wins and one loss.

Ron Farrell led SN to its victory as he pitched three touchdown passes. In the first period, he hit Al Stipe and in the last period he threw TDs to John Vohs and Lee Bayley.

Jumbolaya clinched "B" laurels by dumping previously undefeated Sigma Chi, 8-0. Sigma Chi has two league games to play and Jumbolaya ended its regular season with seven wins in seven games.

End Paul Sullivan scored the winning touchdown for Jumbolaya on a pass from halfback Glen Biehl in the second quarter. Tom Pomroy was credited with a safety for Jumbolaya in the last period of the battle.

Intramural football playoffs are scheduled to begin next Wednesday, according to intramural director George Cross. The top three teams of each division will participate.

Intramural football league standings: "A" division—Forestry, 6-1; Sigma Nu, 6-1; Phi Delta Theta, 5-1; Alpha Tau Omega, 4-3; Craig One, 2-4; Butte Rats, 2-4; Phi Sigma Kappa, 1-6; Craig "A", 0-7 (dropped from league).

"B" division—Jumbolaya, 7-0; Sigma Chi, 4-1; Jumbo hall and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 4-2; Theta Chi, 2-3; Craig Stranglers, 2-4; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 1-5; and Craig "B", 0-7 (dropped from league).

Cubs, Idaho Babes To Tangle Friday; Williamson Drops

Twenty-five freshman football players will leave for Moscow, Ida., early this afternoon where they will conclude their season against the University of Idaho frosh Friday afternoon.

Several Cub mainstays will be unable to make the trip because of injuries and several others may not see action. Don Williamson, Butte, one of the most promising of the freshman prospects, will be unable to play football again, Coach Bob Byrne revealed Wednesday. Williamson suffered a concussion in scrimmages recently, and doctors advised the high scoring halfback to steer clear of the gridiron. Guy Antti, Chicago; Joe Toy, Great Falls; and John Paladichuk, Sidney, will make the trip, but may not play because of minor injuries incurred in practice.

On the whole, Coach Byrne is pleased with the team's spirit.

Thosmaking the trip are: Antti, Mike Barone, Roy Bray, Ron Broker, Wayne Dunkelberger, Dick Dziwi, Hall Erickson, Tom Farrell, Charles Fisher, Tom Grady, Tom Grenz, Howard Johnson, Fred Kraepelin, James Lee, Dean Mora, John Paladichuk, Ed Prinkki, Ted Rannow, Pete Rhinehart, Tom Richardson, Ervin Rosera, Tom Rubins, Frank Scaletta, Bob Scott, and Joe Toy. They will be accompanied by coaches Byrne and Ed Anderson and manager Bill McGovern.

J-School Keglers Strengthen Lead

Journalism bowlers tightened their grip on first place in the Faculty Bowling league Tuesday night as they swept a three-game series from the Air Science professors. Natural Science took three from Forestry while Administration and Natural Science won two of three from the Business Administration and Chemistry-Pharmacy.

The Business Ad keggers rolled the high team series, downing 2329 pins, while the Air Science team copped game honors with a 798 score. High individual series were rolled by Everett Allen, Air Science, with a 530, and Albert Helbing, Business Administration, with a 520. Helbing also won high game honors with a 203.

The standings: Journalism, 14-7; Natural Science, 13-8; Physical Education, 13-8; Administration, 12-9; Chemistry-Pharmacy, 10-11; Business Administration, 10-11; Air Science, 6-15; and Forestry, 6-15.

Reading Accelerator Machines Available for Student Use

Any student interested in speeding up his reading and sharpening his perception of what he reads would do well to see Dr. K. E. Severson in the student testing bureau, Main hall, 208.

Dr. Severson announced that there are three reading accelerator machines which may be used by any student who signs up on the time schedule posted in his office. Only students in the How to Study classes have been signed up for two one-hour periods so far, and time is open for others.

There is a "difference between seeing and perceiving," says Dr. Severson and he is setting out to improve the "speed and span" of recognition, in his class, by "tachistoscopic" training. This method uses an overhead projector and flashes images on the screen at a rate between one and one one-hundredth of a second.

The student watches the screen and writes down the images flashed, which may be a geometric form, number series, words, phrases, or sentences. This practice, according to tests, has a considerable accelerating effect on sight and perception.

Before beginning this instruction, says Dr. Severson, students are given a "telebinocular vision test" which tests the eye for both near and far vision, a much improved method compared to the older ones. The usual "Snellen test" tests only one eye at a time, and at only one distance.

We Don't Compete With Greek Row Say Independents

The philosophy of the Independents as a non-competitive organization was emphasized Monday night at their meeting when 75 unaffiliated students decided not to accept a semi-challenge against the Greeks in a convocation Friday, suggested by Johan Miller, Fairview, Traditions board chairman. Publicity, political, social, and finance committees were elected by the group. A discussion of the honor system was led by Donna Border, East Glacier Park.

Miller's suggestion was to see whether the Greeks or Independents could round up the largest attendance for a pep convocation Friday. The group unanimously over-ruled the proposal on the grounds that they were not organized to compete with the Greeks.

The honor system is more than just pencil tapping, said Russ Pfohl, Deer Lodge, when Pfohl, Miss Border and Allen Kelley, Greenfield, Mass., the three Independent members of the campus honor system committee reported on their ideas of the system.

Eleven students were elected for the social committee, seven for the publicity committee, ten for the finance committee, and eight for the political committee. Duties of each committee were suggested in an amendment by Cal Calton, Worland, Wyo. The amendment was referred to the standing committee and will be voted upon next meeting.

Prof. Ludvig G. Browman is acting sponsor of the Independents. Included on next Monday's agenda is discussion of the honor system and an hour of dancing.

No Kaimin Tomorrow, Next Edition is Tuesday

Today is Veterans day and a holiday for newspaper printers. Because of this the University print shop will be closed and there will be no Kaimin tomorrow morning. We will resume publication Tuesday and continue on our four-day-week basis.

Beat the Bobcats

MSU students, and wives of the coaches and players line up to greet the team members as they get off the plane at the County airport. This picture was taken from inside the plane last Sunday morning when the Grizzlies arrived home from New Mexico. If this enthusiasm continues for the Bobcat game Saturday the MSU squad will have plenty of support from the stands to match the high spirited Bobcat fans.

Cafeteria service was opened at MSU in October 1914 when "jam, biscuits and coffee or tea" were served to those who "wish to feed" for the kingly sum of 10 cents.
